About the Company

THE ISLAMIC COUNCIL OF SOUTH AFRICA HALAAL FUND (PTY) LTD (ICSA)

The information we collect

We collect and process your personal information mainly to contact you for the purposes of understanding your requirements and delivering products and services accordingly. For this purpose we will collect personal details including but not limited to your name, physical address, postal address, telephone numbers, email addresses, VAT numbers, and organisation details.

We collect information directly from you to the full extent possible.

Where possible we will inform you what information is required and what information is optional.

Website usage information may be collected using "cookies" which allows us to collect standard internet visitor usage information.

How we use your information

We will use your personal information as agreed and specifically for the purposes for which it was collected. In addition, where necessary, your information may be retained for legal or research purposes.

- To gather contact information;
- To confirm and verify your identity or to verify that you are an authorised user for security purposes;
- For the detection and prevention of fraud, crime, money laundering or other malpractice;

- To conduct market or customer satisfaction research or for statistical analysis;
- For audit and record keeping purposes;
- In connection with legal proceedings.
- Where a legal obligation exists in terms whereof we must collect, use or retain your information.

Disclosure of information

We may disclose your personal information to our service providers who are involved in the delivery of products or services to you. We have agreements in place to ensure that they comply with the privacy requirements as required by the Protection of Personal Information Act.

We may also disclose your information:

- Where we have a duty or a right to disclose in terms of law or industry codes;
- Where we believe such disclosure is necessary to protect our rights.

Information Security

We are legally obliged to protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use. We will review our security controls and protocols from time to time.

Our security policies and procedures cover:

- Physical security;
- Computer and network security;
- Access to personal information;
- Secure communications;
- Security in contracting out activities or functions;
- Retention and disposal of information;
- Acceptable usage of personal information;
- Governance and regulatory issues;
- Monitoring access and usage of private information;
- Investigating and reacting to security incidents.

When we contract with third parties, we impose appropriate security, privacy and confidentiality obligations on them to ensure that personal information that we remain responsible for, is kept secure.

We will ensure that anyone to whom we pass your personal information agrees to treat your information with the same level of protection as we are obliged to.

Your Rights: Access to information

You have the right to request a copy of the personal information we hold about you. To do this, simply contact us at the numbers/addresses as provided on our website/communication channel and specify what information you require. We will need a copy of your ID document to confirm your identity before providing details of your personal information.

Please note that any such access request may be subject to a payment of a legally allowable fee.

Correction of your information

You have the right to ask us to update, correct or delete your personal information. We will require a copy of your ID document to confirm your identity before making changes to personal information we may hold about you. We would appreciate it if you would keep your personal information accurate.
